Please join Dr Julie Blake and Dr Mat Ranaweera for a dinner education session on the current issues GPs encounter in practice around men and women's health and wellbeing.

Dr Blake received her Fellowship to the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners in 2011. She has a particular interest in sexual and reproductive health issues. Julie also enjoys teaching medical students and junior doctors and is an accredited GP registrar supervisor with James Cook University.

Dr Ranaweera attained Fellowship with the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners in 2016. Currently, he is an Associate Lecturer at the University of Queensland and is a GP Supervisor for the RACGP and ACCRM GP colleges. Mat is interested in all aspects of general practice. In particular, he has a passion for men's health and family planning.
