Are you living the Central Queensland, Wide Bay or Sunshine Coast regions, with a desire to contribute to enhancing the health and well-being of your local community?

CCQ is an independent, not-for-profit organisation that delivers the Primary Health Network (PHN) programs on behalf of the Commonwealth Department of Health and Aged Care. Through needs-assessment of our community, we commission leading health services and coordinated care for our region.

The CCQ Board is seeking expressions of interest from eligible members of the community to join a newly formed Country to Coast, Queensland (CCQ) Consumer Council, a sub-committee of the CCQ Board. The Council will represent Central QLD, Wide Bay and Sunshine Coast regions. We are seeking representation across all these regions.

Julie Sturgess, Country to Coast, Queensland CEO says the CCQ Board is seeking diverse representation from the community, "We are looking for people with both interest and lived experience in health, of all ages from diverse backgrounds, in Central Queensland, Wide Bay and Burnett, Gympie and the Sunshine Coast regions, to apply to join this newly formed Council. Members will participate and be paid for their involvement."

"We encourage people to apply through the Expression of Interest, and view the Terms of Reference for more detail, and reach out to CCQ if they have any questions".
