

Your Invitation

Medicinal Cannabis in the Treatment of Chronic Pain

Dinner Meeting-Thursday 10th June 2021

Time: 6pm registration to 9.15pm

Venue: Waterfront Restaurant Pulg St & Kent St, Urangan

Presenters: Dr Peter Georgius Pain Specialist & Rehabilitation Physician (Sunshine Coast)

Learning Objectives

- To understand the role of Medicinal Cannabis in treating Chronic Pain
- Understand the history of Medicinal Cannabis and how it works on the Endocannabinoid system
- Learn evidence based indications for the appropriate prescription of Australian Cannabinoid therapies
- Learn the difference between THC vs CBD
- Understand the symptoms, side effects, and drug interactions associated with Medical Cannabis
- Access – Learn how to access Medicinal Cannabis via the TGA pathway in Australia and the SASB process requirements

Dr Peter Georgius
Pain Medicine Specialist FFPMANZCA
Rehabilitation Physician FAFRM, MBBS, BMedSc
Director of the Sunshine Coast Clinical Research

Dr Georgius has been based in Noosa since 2008 and conducts clinics, performs procedures and is a Consultant in both hospital and community based locations around the Sunshine Coast. He offers a comprehensive, multi-disciplinary and individualised treatment plan for patients with Chronic Pain and Complex conditions. As an expert in advanced Pain management procedures Dr Georgius has a strong interest in all aspects of musculo-skeletal and neurological rehabilitation. He is regularly asked to give lectures and is the principal investigator of clinical studies involving neuromodulation and pharmacology.

Event Run Sheet

6:00pm- Arrival & Registration

6.30pm- Welcome from Tilray – Entrees served

6.40pm- Presentation by Dr Peter Georgius

7.40pm- Main course served

8.00pm- Presentation resumed by Dr Peter Georgius

8.45pm- Q&A, Hosted by Dr Peter Georgius (Dessert served)

9.15pm- Meeting concludes

Registration contact

nicole.atkins@tilray.com 0423 823 180

RSVP- 3rd of June 2021