

Safer Futures Symposium

Bridging Intersections in Youth Support and Domestic Violence, Sexual Violence and Women's Wellbeing Sectors for Early Intervention

REGISTER HERE

Thursday 21 March 2024

*voco Brisbane City Centre, Brisbane, QLD
9:00am - 5:00pm*

Safer Futures Symposium

Bridging Intersections in Youth Support and Domestic Violence, Sexual Violence and Women's Wellbeing Sectors for Early Intervention

Ticket includes:

Access to a range of interactive workshops

Work collaboratively to learn about supporting diverse young people through their unique challenges.

Keynote speech from Brooke Blurton

Regarded as one of Western Australia's most prominent Young Aboriginal people, Brooke Blurton works with young vulnerable youth exposed to severe abuse, including those who have been in and out of foster homes, expelled from school or have become homeless.

Youth-led panel discussion

Hear from a group of diverse young people on their positive experiences with youth services and how it has shaped them.

Youth services panel discussion

Hear from people working in the sector that will share learnings and successes when working with young people.

Morning/Afternoon tea and lunch

Workshops will focus on:

- Supporting First Nations young people.
- Supporting LGBTQIAP+ young people.
- Supporting young people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- Supporting young people with disability.
- Trauma-informed conversations on healthy relationships with vulnerable young people
- Effective co-design with young people.
- And much more!

Date & Time

Thursday 21 March 2024
9:00am - 5:00pm

Location

voco Brisbane City Centre
85/87 N Quay, Brisbane City QLD 4000

Register

<https://events.humanitix.com/safer-futures-symposium>

