

Tues 22 Aug 2023
7:30PM-8:30PM
AEST

If CKD is detected early and managed appropriately, progression can be slowed.

Nephrologist, Professor Kevan Polkinghorne will discuss in the importance of early detection, as well as recommend evidence based guidelines that can slow the progression of CKD and improve the management of common complications as the condition progresses.

Progressive chronic kidney disease: stages 3&4

Register here:

Accreditation details

RACGP CPD EA Hours - 1
(pending approval)
ACRRM PDP EA Hours - 1
(pending approval)

This activity is kindly supported by